TREASURER DILIBERTI RELEASES
2011 UNCLAIMED FUNDS LISTING

Milwaukee County Treasurer Dan Diliberti has released the 2011 Unclaimed Funds listing online and is providing printed copies for reference at local libraries. Unclaimed funds are local government funds held by the County Treasurer and other agencies for anyone who has failed to claim ownership. Examples include unclaimed county or municipal service payments, jury duty checks or bail money.

“The Treasurer’s Office plays an important role in the process of returning unclaimed monies to the citizens of this community,” Diliberti said in his announcement today. “The amount of unclaimed funds, approximately $2,150,000, is significant and we are continuing to expand public accessibility to information for potential claimants.”

The 2011 Unclaimed Funds listing is available on the Milwaukee County website at www.county.milwaukee.gov. Enter “unclaimed funds” in the site search field and follow the instructions for viewing the list and downloading and filing a claim form.

The 2011 listing is also available this year through printed copy, published in the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel on Friday, February 4th, and reprinted on Tuesday, February 8th, and Sunday, February 13th, 2011.

Printed copies should also be available at the Ready Reference section of all public libraries in Milwaukee County by February 1st, as well as in the Treasurer’s Office, Room 102 of the Courthouse, 901 N. 9th Street, where claim forms are available and submitted.

“We are attempting to return this money to its rightful owners,” said Treasurer Diliberti, “so we are making every effort to get the word out to the general public about these unclaimed funds.”
